

Public Transportation Proposal

You are an urban planner, and you must create a proposal for a new and innovative public transportation system in a big city. In this public transportation system, you must include buses, trains, and a ferry. Describe the system you have created. Include aspects such as how many of each run, the cost, what times they run, and how many people can fit on each. End your proposal by explaining how your system will benefit the community.

