

A Disappointing Purchase

Imagine that yesterday you went shopping and bought something brand new. However, by the time you brought it home it had broken and did not work anymore. Imagine that you are upset by this and are reaching out the company for a replacement. Write a letter/email to a fake company asking for a replacement product. Describe what item you purchased, what was wrong with it, and why you would like to be reimbursed.

