Story: Your friend invited you to an Easter party. You go to mall because you need to find something to wear to the party.

You walk into mall. It is very busy. First you go to H&M.

Hi! Welcome! Let me know if you need help finding anything today!

Worker

Okay - thank you so much!
I am just browsing!

You

After you walk through the store, you notice the prices are expensive. You leave a find a different store. You walk into Target.

Hi! Do you need help finding anything specific today?

Worker

You

The worker helps you find a few options of dresses (or shirts), but you are looking for different colors. It is typical to wear light or pastel colors on Easter in the U.S.

Worker

I am sorry! We do not have clothes in the colors you are looking for.

You

You need to find a new store. Ask the worker for a recommendation.

Worker

You could try Old Navy! I think they sell lots of spring-time clothes!

You

Okay - thank you for your time and help today!

You

Coral Ridge Mall located in Coralville, IA

You walk to the store named Old Navy. You see lots of colorful dresses, shirts, skirts, and more.
You see a teal dress but you do not know if it will fit.
Find the fitting rooms.

The fitting rooms are in the back right corner. Do you see the big red sign?

Worker

You

You try on the dress but it is too big. You need a smaller size. Ask for a different size.

What size do you have now? I will bring you
two other size options.

Worker

You

Perfect - thank you!

Culture fact!

In the U.S., clothes sizes are sometimes letters (S / M / L / XL)
but sometimes they are numbers (00 / 2 / 4 etc.) This depends on the store and not all sizes are the same at every store.

The dress fits perfectly. You give the other sizes to the fitting room attendant (the worker).

These didn't work?
Ok. Thank you!

Worker

Fitting room / changing room

You walk to the front of the store. You are now ready to check out (buy the clothes).

Ready to check out?
Ok. Do you have a rewards number?

Worker

You

Would you like a bag?
Would you like your reciept?
