

Let talk about Iowa City

- Hi Maria! How are you settling into Iowa City?
- Yes, Iowa City is known for its welcoming community. Have you had a chance to visit any local events yet?
- Absolutely! The Jazz Festival is one of the biggest events every summer. People from all over come to enjoy music, food, and art. It really shows the city's creative spirit.
- Of course! This year the festival will be on July 4th up to July 6th, at various places.

- Hello Alex! I'm doing well, thank you. It's a beautiful city. I like the parks and the friendly people.
- Not yet, but I heard about the Iowa City Jazz Festival. Is it popular here?
- Do you know when will that be?
- That sounds wonderful. What other community activities do people enjoy?

- Many people like going to the farmers market downtown on Saturdays. It's a great place to buy fresh food and meet neighbors.
- Have you heard that Iowa City is a UNESCO City of Literature?
- Yes! and it is a great place for people who enjoy learning and creativity.
- Also, If you ever want to practice English or meet new friends, you should join the conversation group at the library on Fridays.
- You're welcome! If you want, I can show you around some of my favorite spots in the city.
- Sure, Let's keep in touch.

- I love that there are so many places to connect with people.
- Really! No, I did not.
- I'm excited to explore those!
- I will definitely do that. Thank you for the suggestion!
- That would be great, Alex. I'm looking forward to learning more about Iowa City and Johnson County.
- Yes, thank you! See you soon.
