

Jonhson County Vocabulary

Read the following places and their definitions:

- Coralville

A small city near Iowa City, known for its rapid growth, shopping, and suburban amenities.

- Old Capitol

A historic site and former seat of the territorial government of Iowa; an iconic building in Iowa City.

- Hancher Auditorium

A well-known performance venue that hosts concerts, theater productions, and other live events, part of the University of Iowa

- Amana Colonies

A unique set of villages founded by German immigrants, known for their craftsmanship, local food, and communal lifestyle, located just outside Iowa City.

- Pedestrian Mall

A popular local area in downtown Iowa City with shops, restaurants, and events—ideal for walking and exploring.

- Iowa River

The primary river running through Iowa City, providing scenic views and recreational activities.

- University of Iowa

A diverse institution of higher education located in Iowa City, offering a wide range of academic programs and cultural experiences.

- Farmers' Market

An open-air public market where local farmers sell fresh produce, handmade goods, and local products.

You have learned some new things

Let's Practice!!

Jonhson County Vocabulary

Using the places you learned previously fill the blanks in the following sentences:

1. The _____ offers a wide range of academic programs, but it is also known for its vibrant arts scene and cultural events.

2. The _____ is an important landmark in Iowa City, where many historical events took place during the 1800s.

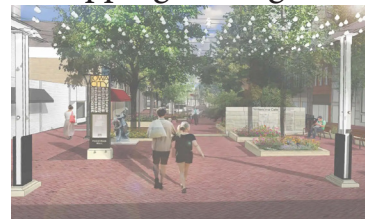

3. The _____ is a place where people can attend concerts, watch theater performances, and enjoy cultural events.

4. On Saturdays, locals love to visit the _____ to buy fresh vegetables, fruits, and handmade crafts.

5. You can enjoy a peaceful walk along the _____, where you might spot kayakers or cyclists on a sunny day.

6. The _____ offers a perfect blend of shopping, dining, and entertainment, and is one of the highlights of downtown Iowa City.

7. The _____ are known for their beautiful architecture, strong community values, and distinctive German heritage.

Johnson County Vocabulary

Let's Practice More!!

Make a group of two answer the following questions, answering them in your own words. This question reflects the cultural influence in Johnson County - Iowa City.

1. How do you think the University of Iowa influences the cultural life of Iowa City?
2. If you were to visit Iowa City, which place or event would you most like to explore and why?
3. What role do public spaces, like the Pedestrian Mall, play in shaping the community's culture?
4. Iowa City is a UNESCO City of Literature. How do you think this status influences the city's cultural offerings?

