

PARENTING WRITING PROMPT

Name: _____ Date: _____

My friend Jasmine is a single parent with three children. She works full-time at a daycare. She always makes time everyday after work to have dinner with her children. Whenever her children have an issue, she stops what she's doing and actively listens to them. She gives them guidance with their issue. On the weekends, she makes sure to fill up their time with activities, such as going to the Coralville Aquatic Center or the Iowa City Public Library. Most of all, she makes sure to reach out to the community for support whenever she needs it. Jasmine is a great example of a phenomenal parent.

Task: Describe a good parent you know. What makes them a good parent? How do they support their children?

[illegible]
