

A Letter to Your Younger Self

You are writing a letter to your younger self about what it means to be an adult. In your letter, talk about everything you do, chores, work, taking care of others, etc, and compare your responsibilities as an adult to when you were a kid. How are they different? How are they the same?

